I am the copyright owner of the above-identified composition. I understand that the unit identified above will perform at local, regional and -if they so choose to- national color guard/indoor percussion competitions. I hereby grant the unit permission to arrange and use the composition as it wishes as part of their performance at the competitions. This license to use the work is granted at no cost to the unit.

I also understand that the competitions at which the composition will be performed may be recorded by Winter Guard International (WGI) to be sold at a future date. I hereby grant WGI permission to record the composition as performed by the unit named above, to edit the performance at its discretion, and to sell video tapes and DVDs containing the recorded and edited performance. I also grant permission for the use of the composition in edited video and/or sound clips of the recorded performance to be placed on WGI's web site if selected. This license to use the work is also granted at no cost to the unit or to WGI.
